Only Fifteen Miles to Go

Still swinging along briskly these hikers are approaching the Mile 9 checkpoint in last Saturday's March for Millions.

MILES FOR MILLIONS EARNS ALMOST $6,000

Three hundred and forty-seven Drayton Valley and area residents participated in last Saturday's "Miles for Millions March" which earned a pledged sum of $5,802.45, to go into a fund for people in unfortunate circumstances at home and abroad.

The marchers registered at the Centennial Arena Saturday morning and at 8:00 a.m. Mayor Bob Findlay fired the starting gun and the wave of people began the march through town and west past Poplar Ridge.

The firing of the gun heralded twelve hours on the road for some of the marchers with the last one reported in at Central Control at 7:50 p.m.

First to finish was 16-year old Ken Herbert, an FMHS student, whose time was five hours and fifty-five minutes. He was followed closely by Dr. Arnold Voth and Omar Paranteau at six hours.

Dr. Voth held a two or three mile bulge throughout most of the march but suffered a crippled knee in the home stretch allowing the lead to change.

Of the 347 marchers, 209 completed the course, arriving throughout the afternoon and early evening. The fifteen mile mark took a heavy toll with 38 dropping out at that point.

First girl around the complete 24-mile course was Debbie Hagen, 13, with a time of six hours and forty minutes.

A number of youngsters, in the nine or ten age group, entered the march with several finishing and the others piling up many miles before calling it a day.

Eight trucks provided by Pembina Pipeline Ltd. served as check points along the route and maintained communication with mobile telephones. The checkpoints also provided water and first aid supplies when required.

Pembina employees who took part included Slim White, John Poloway, Jim Streit, Tom Henderson, John Reid, Elmer Madsen, Al McKillop, Harold Reinhart, Irvin Rendflesh and Roy Cable. Ladies who helped Police Chief Bob

Where's the Water

Water was in great demand at checkpoints around the course of last Saturday's March for Millions. These parched hikers are shown clustered around the water jug at the forestry lookout tower at Mile 9 on the route.

Council Sets New Millrate at 75; Increase of 10

At its regular meeting on Thursday, May 9th Town Council reluctantly set the new millrate at 75 following earlier sessions of paring the budget as closely as possible. The new rate is an increase of 10 over last year.

The major part of the increase will go toward school requisition, health and hospital service, and debenture debt payments. Approximately one mill of the ten mill increase will go toward municipal government expenditure.

Mr. Frank W. Maddock and John Tyler of Stony Plain School Division attended Thursday's meeting to provide details on the raising of the supplementary requisition to eight mills, double that of 1967.

They explained that controlable expenses of the division amount to about only ten percent of the budget. Uncontrolable expenses, including teachers' salaries have been growing steadily.

The Board has fixed its operating budget at $2,644,194 an increase of 15.37 percent over last year. The division received $45,000 additional under the foundation program but teacher salary increases alone amount to $171,000 over 1967.

The board spokesmen noted that it has cut back on services and dug into $29,000 out of surpluses to hold the supplementary requisition at 8 mills.

The board's budget breaks down as follows: Instruction, 56.14%; Instruction Aids, 3.2%; Plant, 9.41%; Transportation, 17.18%; Debt Charges, 9.48%; Capital out of Revenue, 2.75%; and Administration, 1.84%. Teachers' salaries in 1967 amounted to $1,290,311. compared to $1,461,311. for 1968.

Council members agreed that the Stony Plain Divisional Board had been able to control acceleration of school costs more effectively than most other school areas in Alberta but this knowledge in itself was not thought likely to alleviate the blow to ratepayers.

Don MacKenzie and Bob Cowan, representing the Hospital Board, were also present to explain the hospital requisition.

Doig with registration were Mrs. Jean Pederson, Mrs. Alice Rozak, Mrs. Bea Wickens and Mrs. Carol Hoyland.

Official cars that patrolled the route to pick up marchers when they had enough were driven by Bob Cowan, Fred Scholmeier and George Mohn. Members of the local Motor bike club also assisted by patrolling between checkpoints.

Marchers were also appreciative of the consideration of many other people who provided them with fruit and drinks along the way and also drove expired hikers back to town.

As of Monday morning thirty-nine of those participating had not reported in at Central Control. All those who did not check in are asked to see Bob Doig at the Police Office so that final results may be completed.

Society Doubles Field Crops Prize Money

MRS. M. BRUNER,
Correspondent.

The directors of the Wildwood and District Agricultural Society held their regular meeting on May 8th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. McColman of Wildwood. Main topic of the meeting was the new Field Crops Competition being sponsored by the Society.

The Directors wish to remind the farmers of the area to take advantage of this Field Crops program being introduced to promote the growth of coarse grain crops in the area.

A quote from the fair book follows to better acquaint the farmers with the program: "Farmers are invited to enter for judging, a five acre or more field of grain, oats or barley or both. Judging will take place a week before the fair, which is to be on August 23rd, and take the form of a field day or tour. Application forms for this class may be obtained from the District Agriculturist's office, the Society Secretary or the Treasurer and the deadline is June 30th. Prizes are as follows: First $50 for the best oat field and the same for barley; Second, $30 for oats and the same for barley; 3rd, $10 for oats and the same for barley."

In addition, Mr. Pugh of Evansburg will give an additional $15 prize for the winner of the oats competition and Mr. Getson of Chip Lake will give the same amount to the winner of the barley competition. Canwest Seed Co. will present the winner of the oats competition with an engraved silver tray." Forms have already been mailed to various farmers in the area.

It was decided not to go ahead with the cement floor for the building at the present time. Instead it was decided to haul in some more gravel for a base and wait a little for the cement work.

The men took over and are planning a steak barbeque to be held on the 16th of June at the fair grounds, the celebration to be in honor of the burning of the bank loan note which was paid off this season.

The directors wish me to let the farmers know that in the above grain field competition, registered seed is not necessary for the seeding of the field and that the field, though it has to be at least five acres in minimum size, may be much larger, if desired.

Fair books should be out by the end of the month, it was reported. Anyone wishing to obtain a book may contact Mrs. Bruner at Evansburg or Mrs. Payne at Wildwood.

The next meeting is to be held at the V. Parkes residence in Wildwood.

It probably wouldn't do any good to spank a girl after she is eighteen, but it centainly would be a lot of fun.

Rocky Mountain Looks Impossible

A glance at the above map shows constituents of Rocky Mountain Riding in an unusual situation. The constituency stretches 500 miles from north to south and from farm areas into mountain resorts.

We are aware that the foothills area is sparsely settled but we doubt that the area is so unpopulated as to justify its enormous size. And we don't see how we will get reasonable representation by one member of Parliament (whatever party or inclination).

We can't do much about it but we can squawk. If you feel it's an unfair redistribution write to your member, or better still the Prime Minister. If enough people complain, the government may take another look at the situation.

Don't be a Lemming

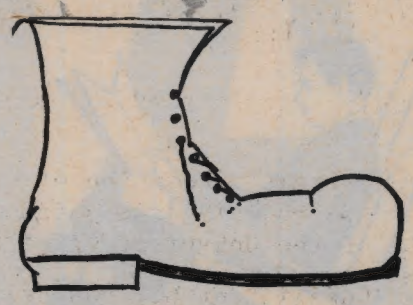
The Victoria Day weekend exodus is rarely matched in nature except by the Arctic Lemmings' frenzied rush to the sea. By the hundreds of thousands these small mouse-like rodents gather in armies, always migrate downhill to the sea and throw themselves in--population control by a voluntary act of suicide.

We wonder if this streak of self-destruction is also inherited by a dangerous minority of the vacationing crowd. The type of lemming who fortifies himself with a "few for the road" and leaves a trail of terrified motorists on his trip to the lake where he transfers his antics to a motorboat.

On the off chance that Somebody Up There likes him, he might survive to have the same fun every weekend this summer. But don't count on it.

There were 43 drownings in Alberta in 1967.

Don't be a lemming! This summer: Think, Don't Sink!



Tired Feet for Good Cause

Our congratulations to the many people who turned out Saturday for the "Miles for Millions March". Your effort under Saturday's hot sun will mean a great deal to people who need help.

It was a fine community effort.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

May 13/68

Dear Editor:

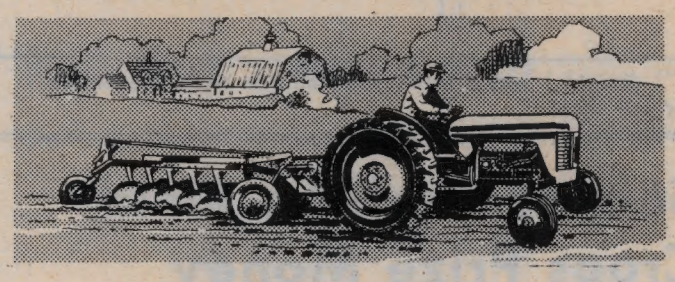
Many thanks to all those people who sponsored, took part in and aided in any way the successful "Miles For Millions" march held last Saturday. The check-point and water truck operators and the generous people who supplied oranges, pop, etc., along the route gave the marchers the inspiration to continue to the finish line. The march itself created many new friendships, produced a number of dramas and humorous situations and generally helped to weld the Drayton Valley people into a closer family relationship.

I would not be truthful if I took the credit for the idea of the march. It came from Mark Pickup--one of the many outstanding teenagers we have in Drayton Valley. The preparatory logistics was simple with a committee composed of Bob Doig, Fred Schipper, Ron Smith and Bill Johanneson.

Out Blessed Lord thanks all those who helped His people that day.

Sincerely,
Fr. Lynch

FARM NOTES



Compulsory Vaccination for Brucellosis Ended May 1st

The first of May marked the end of compulsory calfhood vaccination for the control of brucellosis or Bangs disease in Alberta. However, grants for voluntary vaccination will still be provided to cattlemen who wish to vaccinate herd replacements.

In a review of the progress that has been made in eradicating this disease, an Alberta Department of Agriculture spokesman noted that back in 1948, when the cattle population in this province was about half its present size of 3,400,000 head, brucellosis was responsible for an annual loss to the industry of $2,000,000. This loss was caused by impaired breeding performance and abortions. Since the disease is transmissible, brucellosis, or undulant fever, in human beings was not uncommon at that time.

Blood tests taken in 1948 showed that approximately 12 per cent of all cattle in this province were infected with brucellosis. An incidence far too high to permit a test and slaughter program, without causing real hardship to infected herd owners.

Since it had been shown that strain 19 B brucella vaccine provided protection against the disease, a decision was made by the Alberta Department of Agriculture to introduce a vaccination program for all calves that were to be kept for future herds. Initially, the vaccine was purchased and distributed by the Department. Later, when the federal government made the vaccine available, a system of grants to municipalities was introduced. The grants were used to cover administration costs and to reduce the cost of vaccination. It was recognized then that the time would come when blood testing all cattle would become part of the control program.

With the introduction of the brucellosis restricted area program in 1950, the first in Canada, control measures became more comprehensive. Petitions submitted by cattle owners resulted in the vaccination of heifer calves becoming compulsory in a municipality. The program, administered by municipal agricultural service boards, ensured that all public sale cattle were tested for brucellosis. Animals known to be infected were branded and their movement restricted. From 1958 onwards more than 90 per cent of all heifer calves in the province were being vaccinated each year.

The support and enthusiasm of Alberta's cattlemen, the work of agricultural service boards and the long hours of labor put in by veterinarians is credited with a large part of the success of this program. Petitions for control measures were usually supported by over 90 per cent of the livestock owners, and fall vaccination campaigns became a part of most annual agricultural events

The Canada Department of Agriculture's national brucellosis control program came into being in 1960. It stipulated that all cattle must be tested, and that infected animals must be eliminated. Figures released by the Health of Animals Branch after the initial test showed that Alberta, with 23

Golden Spur Riders Plan First Gymkhana

The Golden Spur Gymkhana Club held its regular meeting at Funnell Community Centre on May 2nd.

After a lengthy discussion a motion was made to move the Gymkhana activities to a new location. A vote was taken and majority were in favor of moving from the present Breton location to a site near the Lindale Hall. Since it was not possible to obtain good grounds at a price the club felt they could afford in or near the village of Breton they decided on the Lindale site where grounds could be obtained rent free.

Members of the Goiden Spur Gymkhana would like to take this opportunity to say a special Thank you to Mr. and Mrs. Matt Leake of the Mobuck Ranch for their generous land offer. Also to all the new helpers who came out on May 5th to help set up at the new location.

per cent of the nation's cattle, had only 5 per cent of the infected cows. For approximately five years after the federal test commenced, compulsory vaccination continued to be actively promoted in municipalities by the provincial government.

The combined effort of the Alberta Department of Agriculture, provincial cattle owners and veterinarians has resulted in 5,767,106 calves being vaccinated during the last 20 years. By 1958 abortions due to brucellosis had almost disappeared, and by 1965 the 12 per cent incidence of infection that existed in 1948 had been reduced to .5 per cent. Brucellosis in human beings showed a corresponding decrease.

In addition to protecting human health, the brucellosis control program, pioneered by the Department of Agriculture, has meant millions of dollars to Alberta cattlemen. As it is gradually geared down to a voluntary level, the Veterinary Service Division will transfer more attention to other cattle diseases of economic importance in the province.

CANADIANS BECOMING SNACK-HAPPY PEOPLE

Canadias are becoming as snack-happy as Americans, according to a Canadian Grocer survey of snack food manufacturers. This market is heading for the biggest year in its history.

The boom in "munch and dip" snack foods has drawn major companies into the field and more are expected to jump on the bandwagon. At one time, potato chips, pretzels and peanuts had the market pretty much to themselves, but the story is different today. Party-food shoppers are buying more of the newer snack products. One major company says its volume doubled over the past six years on existing products.

Annual retail value of combined snack and chip consumption in Canada is $2 a head. In 1966, Canadians munched, scrunched and chewed their way through 66% more snacks, including potato chips, than they did 10 years ago, Canadian Grocer says. In 1965-66, they spent $20 million on potato chips alone.

Caston to Run as Ind. Conservative

Doug Caston

Doug Caston, present Member of Parliament for the Jasper-Edson Federal Constituency Monday morning announced his intention to run in the new Rocky Mountain Constituency as a Conservative, independent of the Progressive Conservative party.

Mr. Caston lost the nomination as Progressive Conservative candidate to Hugh Gourlay of Banff and since that time he says he has been urged to run on the straight Conservative ticket.

Voters from all over the northern part of the constituency (the old Jasper-Edson section) as well as many from the southern end of the new constituency have promised their backing in this most controversial new constituency, he says.

Mr. Caston won the Jasper-Edson by-election of last November by a wide majority over Liberal Allen Sulatycky of Whitecourt and NDP Robert Christiansen.

As the first Conservative Member elected since Mr. Stanfield became leader of the party, Mr. Caston says he is confident that the Conservatives will form the next government.

In a statement issued this week Mr. Caston says that he feels Mr. Gourlay will not have a wide enough appeal, especially in the northern part of Rocky Mountain constituency.

He points out that not only Progressive Conservatives voted for him in last fall's by-election, but people from Social Credit, NDP and Liberal ranks.

Jasper-Edson has elected all three parties in the last twenty years, he says. Social Credit and Liberal until 1958, and then Conservative. As the largest voting part of the new Rocky Mountain constituency this voting for the man tradition will stand him in good stead he feels.

At the recent convention in Red Deer Mr. Caston received the support of the people from the Crowsnest and Turner Valley-Pincher Creek areas as well as the northern region.

Mr. Caston's policies will be those being announced by Conservative Leader Stanfield. As a Stanfield Conservative Mr. Caston had a hand forming these policies in Ottawa.

A man and his wife were camping out in their new tent. During the night a terrible storm came up and the next morning the camp ground was soaking wet.

"My," said the man's wife, "did it rain during the night?"

"Rain," he said, "you never saw such a storm."

"You should have wakened me," she said. "You know I can't sleep well during a thunderstorm."

Farmers' Day Picnic Planned

The regular monthly meeting of the F.U.A. was held Wednesday, May 8th in the Council Chambers of the Town Hall.

Plans were made for a picnic at the F.U.A. picnic grounds on Farmers Day, Friday, June 14th. Pot luck dinner will be served at 12 noon followed by races and games for the small fry.

A social and dance will be held in the evening at the Elks Hall. Chicken supper will be served from 6-8 p.m. followed by an address by MLA Ralph Jesperson. Dancing will commence at 9 p.m. Tickets are $2.50 per person and are available from Mr. Billy Robinson or any F.U.A. member.

SEBA BEACH MARCHERS RAISE $589

SEBA BEACH--In defiance of the widespread opinion that Canadians are soft, eight hardy people from Seba Beach High School walked a total of one hundred eighty-three miles in the Miles for Millions March in Edmonton, Saturday, May 4th. The eight marchers collected a total of $589.85 for the participating charities.

Teachers at Seba, as well as friends, relatives and businessmen of the area, willingly and generously contributed to sponsor the marchers.

The group included one parent, Mrs. Erna Wood of Seba Beach, sponsored for $2.95 per mile; Mr. Bob Christensen, vice-principal of Seba Beach School, sponsored for $5.75 and six students; Robert Brown of Entwistle, $1.15, Peggy Wood of Seba Beach, $1.52, Byron Brown, Entwistle, $3.00 Donna Bamber, Langford Park, $3.14, Margaret Ulvestad, Entwistle, $3.55 and Shannon Campbell, Magnolia, $5.30.

One of the most gratifying aspects of the march was the friendliness of the organizations and of the residents of Edmonton, many of whom offered refreshments to weary walkers.

Area Rec. Program Discussed

The first step was taken in the establishing of an area Recreation program on Monday evening, May 6th when a meeting was held in the Council Chambers of the Drayton Valley Town Hall.

The meeting was chaired by Mayor Robert M. Findlay of Drayton Valley and attended by representatives from the surrounding Improvement Districts, the Town Council of Drayton Valley and the local Recreation Board.

A tentative program for the area was received and a proposed budget was discussed. The proposed area for Recreation programming would be that within the boundaries of Improvement District #77. Organizational meetings will be held later this month and early in June. It is hoped that the program will be in progress by mid-summer.

Health Hints from THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

HEART STRAIN

The heart muscle and the blood vessels of a young man or woman can respond to a tremendous range of demand. However, because a few young people have damage to their hearts from congenital abnormalities or rheumatic heart disease, athletes are examined prior to extremely strenuous exercise.

The Canadian Medical Association reports that young people, very rarely, suffer from heart strain. It seems that the heart muscles show some deterioration after age 30, leaving it with less reserve. What reserve is left seems to benefit from constant training. Thus the man of 65 who decides to shovel the snow from his driveway, or push a car, or run quickly for a bus, is probably unwise. There is additional danger to the older man if he has had a recent respiratory infection which causes added strain.

The lesson to be learned about heart strain is that the older person should not subject his heart to sudden and unusual strain, like wrestling or shovelling snow. For those over 40 the C.M.A. recommends gentler exercise such as walking, playing golf, skating or skiing.

THE Homemaker

VITAMIN C

A recent study of sources of vitamin C was reported in the Canadian Consumer's bulletin.

Vitamin C prevents painful scurvy. It is not stored in the body as some of the other vitamins are and consequently must be consumed each and every day.

The best sources are citrus juices, tomato juice, vitaminized apples juice, and potatoes--yes, potatoes.

Since orange juice is one of the most common sources, the study looked into the best source for money spent. Fresh oranges, orange juice, reconstituted juice and synthetic crystals (Tang and Start) were considered from the point of view of amount of vitamin C per dollar spent.

After standing 3 days in the refrigerator, most sources showed a decline in vitamin C but the only significant loss was with the synthetic crystals. (These are a fair source provided the juice is used up quickly)

Frozen orange juice concentrate appears to be the best product to buy because one gets more vitamin C per dollar. The next best is canned orange juice.

Fresh whole oranges were a relatively expensive source.

BERRYMOOR

MRS. D. MARTIN
Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Harder and family have left our district and moved onto their recently purchased farm in the Lindale district. We are sorry to see them go but wish them the best of everything in their new home.

The Berrymoor ferry was put back into operation on Monday after being out of service for the winter.

George Van Ember spent a few days in the Drayton Valley Hospital but is home again now and is feeling much better.

Mrs. Dorothy Bowen has also been a patient in the Drayton Valley Hospital but is home again now.

The W.A. of the Berrymoor Pentecostal Church held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Donald Martin on Tuesday evening, May 7th.

Mrs. Anna Shaw of Breton spent a couple of days in Berrymoor visiting friends and relatives. She stayed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Martin.

Charles and Fred Martin have both been on the sick list but are feeling better now.

On May 8th a successful Tupperware party was held at the home of Mrs. Mae Martin. The day was also Mrs. Martin's birthday and she received a number of cards and gifts from her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston and Leanne spent a weekend visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnston of Fort Saskatchewan. They report that Clifford, Shelby and family are all well.

Florin Robinson, an old timer of the Tomahawk district visited at the home of his long-time friend, Mr. Ralph Thatcher of Berrymoor.

Lloyd Farnel has moved back onto his farm after being away for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. George Van Ember and Mrs. Ruth Berry motored to Didsbury on Sunday to visit Dr. and Mrs. Keyes who reside there. Dr. Keyes will be remembered by many of our readers when he was one of the doctors at Breton. He and his wife are well and asked to be remembered to all of their friends in this area.

A local man received a ticket a few days ago for going down the highway with a tractor and plow without having a slow moving vehicle sign attached. We would like to take this opportunity to remind all of our farmer friends that it is now illegal to take a tractor and any farm machinery off the farm and onto a road without having one of the approved slow moving vehicle signs prominently displayed on the machinery being moved.

We would like to welcome Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and family to our community. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have rented Pat Gavigans farm and are living there now. Welcome to Berrymoor, folks.

Extend Thanks

The Red Cross would like to thank the canvassers and all those who donated to their annual drive for funds. We realized $919.34 which puts Drayton Valley over the top in its quota.

The blood clinic on April 1st was very successful. Two hundred and thirty pints of blood were donated. The Red Cross would like to thank the many volunteer groups who assisted in distributing pamphlets setting up equipment, registering doners and providng refreshments for the doners.

Expecially a big thanks to all who donated their pint of blood.

They're Off and Walking

Three hundred and forty-seven strong, hikers in last Saturday's March for Millions move out from the Centennial Civic Centre after Mayor Bob Findlay fired the starting gun to get marchers off on the 24-mile route to help less fortunate people around the world.

JOB STRESS NOT CORONARY VILLAIN AFTER ALL

Men subject to occupational stress are not more susceptible to coronary heart disease, it is reported in The Medical Post. It is becoming more evident that events early in adult life predetermine who will fall victim to the disease later.

Dr. Lawrence E. Hinkle, Jr., director of the division of human ecology of Cornell University Medical College, says these findings reported in a study of 250,000 men (11% of the total U.S. male working population) came as a surprise.

EVANSBURG

MRS. M. BRUNER,

"Wind, Wind, blow away, Come again another day" is what almost everyone is saying these days. Today it was blowing especially hard, it seems. Probably, the wind was blowing so hard because we had to make the journey to the Public Health Clinic up at the Legion Hall. Now, there is the place to go to have a fine visit with people you haven't seen for some time and at the same time get all the pre-school children immunized against the various childhood diseases which can keep cropping up. Also available, the nurse tells me, is oral polio vaccine for those adults who are due for that as well as tetanus shots for those whose work may endanger them to infection. I've also been told that if one doesn't want to wait and visit until seeing the nurse, it is wise to call Mrs. Annabelle Taylor and make an appointment as clinic day is rather busy this year.

These winds have also kept the Volunteer Firemen busy, especially the first weekend of May. The Volunteer crew answered eight calls that I know of. The men were out from the late evening on Friday when they answered a call to the peat moss plant until about 2:00 a.m. Sunday when they answered the last call close to the PV Ranch. A light rain in the wee small hours of Sunday morning dampened things enough to stop the fires and give the men a rest.

The children attending the high school have been busy doing cross country running lately. Every noon hour, weather permitting, one can see the boys and girls running their set distances. They also held a very successful Alumni Ball on the 4th. Quite a few of the "old" students turned up to talk about past experiences at the school.

The Agricultural Society held its regular meeting on the 8th. A full report of the meeting appears elsewhere in the paper. It seems to me that with that amount of prize money offered, farmers should take advantage of the new field crops competition that is being sponsored by the Society.

The 4-H Club members gave their share in the recent Miles for Millions march which took place in Edmonton on the 5th. Pembina 4-H Field Crops Club member, Byron Brown from Entwistle, marched the whole twenty-five miles in six hours. Byron was sponsored by his club mates as well as other interested persons. His walk gave the Miles for Millions fund an additional seventy-five dollars as he was sponsored for three dollars per mile. It seems that eight boys from the Seba Beach school took part in the march and all together realized the sum of over $500 for the underpriveleged. The district can be very justly proud of these boys. Two other members of the same 4-H Club took part in a public speaking contest sponsored by the Lutz Grove Junior FUA members. This contest was held in the Wildwood school auditorium and the participating 4-H members were Shirley Hutchinson and Ted Bruner who placed first and fourth respectively.

The gymkhana club held its regular meeting recently and we see they were out on the grounds with some of their horses on the 6th.

The old Scout Hall, so long a land mark, standing by the Legion Hall, has been moved to a new location on the community grounds to await further thoughts on its use or disposal.

The United Church ladies have informed me that Sunday School for the year will end with a family picnic June 2nd. They have also informed me that Sunday Church services will begin at 9:15 beginning June 19th.

A few daring farmers have gone out to begin doing their spring field work but several of them report getting rather mired in the soft spots in their fields so guess it will be a few days before spring field work is in full swing.

The Kinettes will hold a rummage sale on Saturday, May 25th in the Hotel basement from 11:00 to 5:00 p.m. with a bake sale from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. Pickups will be made on May 22nd.

"I saw a picture of it in a catalog . . . It's called a Barbeque."
